

MICHIGAN

Michigan Family Resource Center Network

Heidi Coggins • cogginsh@michigan.gov • 517-335-7770

The Michigan Family Support Network is an emerging Network that launched in September 2021, funded and coordinated by the Michigan Children's Trust Fund. The Network is comprised of nonprofit agencies and programs that provide a wide array of services designed to protect children and to strengthen families.

At a Glance

- Year Founded: 2021
- Network Type: Public Funder-Coordinated

Members

- Number of Members: 11 Community-based FRCs
- Pass through funding: $1,155,000
- Funding source: Federal Community-Based Child Abuse Prevention

Network Functions

- Connecting Members Through Regular Meetings
- Training/Technical Assistance
- Working on Systems Change/Policy/Advocacy
- Shared Data management system

Member Service Areas

- Parenting Support
- Access to Resources
- Family Development Services
- Child Development Activities
- Parent Leadership Development
- Educational Activities
- Health/Wellness Activities
- Community Strengthening Activities

MICHIGAN

Highlights

- In October 2022 Children Trust Michigan funded 6 FRC pilot sites.
- In March 2023, 5 additional FRCs were funded utilizing American Rescue Plan Act funding.

Standards of Quality Implementation

Standards of Quality

for Family
Strengthening & Support

STANDARDS
TRAINERS

4

CERTIFICATION
TRAININGS

2

CERTIFIED
INDIVIDUALS

35

